

LONMARK® INTEROPERABILITY ASSOCIATION

June 1994

LonMark Interoperability Association (LIA) is formed

Initial members: Philips Lighting BV, Schneider Electric, Echelon, Honeywell International, Danfoss Drives, PentaControl AG (formerly Bircher Gebäudetechnik AB), Trend Control Systems Ltd. (formerly Novar Control Solutions), Johnson Controls Inc

July 2001

300th product certified

September 2002

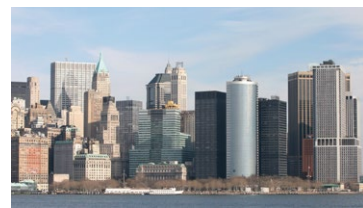

400th product certified

January 2002

LIA celebrates 300 members

2002

NYC Schools – First fully specified two-tier project

September 2004

LonMark Affiliate program established

First affiliate agreement signed – LonMark Americas

September 2004

U.S. Army Corp of Engineers publishes the LonWorks-based Unified Facilities Guide Specification

March 2005

22-city Building Open Systems Seminar Series for facility professionals kicks off throughout the U.S. and Canada

2008

- 800th product certified
- 200th certified professional

2008

Barry Haaser

Echelon
Visionary of the Year

October 2008

LonMark International launches onsite Professional Certification training program

November 2008

ISO/IEC formally approves LonWorks as an internationally recognized standard, known as ISO/IEC 14908, Parts 1, 2, 3 & 4

ISO/IEC 14908

2010

California State Courts – First enterprise based “top down” Open System design

July 2010

LonMark publishes the 3rd Edition of the LonWorks Installation Handbook

August 2010

LonMark introduces the Certified Systems Integrator Program

First certified: Kenmark Real Estate Group

LONMARK®
CERTIFIED
Integrator

2011

Jan Brissman
Schneider Electric
Visionary of the Year

2012

LonMark Launches Ambassador Program

2012

Víctor Cañete
ADITEL Sistemas
Visionary of the Year

20

1994 ANNIVERSARY 2014

1994

July 1995

First LonWorks product certified

Danfoss Serial Communications Option (3 versions)

1999

The LonWorks communications protocol (formerly known as LonTalk) accepted as a standard for control networking ANSI/CEA 709.1 (formerly EIA/CEA 709.1)

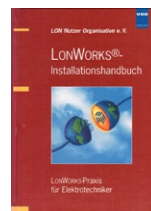

1999

State of Florida, Osceola County Schools – The First Big System Campus project

June 2000

First edition of the LonWorks Installation Handbook published by LonMark Germany

LONMARK® INTERNATIONAL

September 2003

LIA becomes LonMark International, an independent, non-profit organization

October 2003

LonMark International expands its scope to encompass whole systems incorporating XML/SOAP web services standard interfaces

LONMARK®
CERTIFIED
Professional

January 2006

LonMark publishes the Facility Automation System Master Specification

July 2006

LonWorks technology Adopted as Chinese Standard for Control Networking

November 2006

LonMark launches worldwide professional certification program

January 2007

The First LonMark Certified Professionals

- John Clark, Conseil Engineering
- Tom Dreiling, Pacific Coast Trane
- Mitch Slavensky, ACS Controls Corp

April 2007

LonMark Sessions 2007 Global Tour hits 57 cities in 24 countries

November 2007

LonMark First Annual Best of the Year Awards

Visionary of the Year: Tracy Markie, Engenuity

January 2009

Chris Broennimann
IBT
Visionary of the Year

May 2009

LonMark Launches Standards Initiative for Smart Lighting Systems in cooperation with industry leaders including:

- BetaLED
- California Energy Commission
- California Lighting Technology Center
- Echelon Corporation
- Greater Washington Board of Trade
- PG&E Corporation
- Philips Lighting
- ROMlight International

October 2009

LonMark reaches 400 members

September 2010

McDonald's Corporation becomes a Sponsor Member in support of the creation and management of interoperability standards for networked kitchen equipment and building automation systems

2010

Tim Sly
Infranet Partners
Visionary of the Year

2013

- 110 million LonWorks devices installed
- 700 Certified Professionals

2013

Suncor adopts LonWorks standard

